

Butte County Public Health is HIRING!

*Public Health Education Specialist

- Plans, organizes, conducts and evaluates community outreach programs, workshops and conferences to promote health education.
- Identifies and evaluates community health needs; researches, collects data and assists in preparation of grants; assists in monitoring, implementing and evaluating grant programs; organizes participation in program activities; and promotes collaboration, partnership development and capacity building.
- Prepares and delivers presentations to at-risk clients on assigned health topics
- Compiles and maintains records, reports and statistical information related to Public Health.

THESE ARE TERM POSITIONS SET TO END 8/31/2021. For terms and conditions concerning the appointment of a Term employee, see Section 6.13j of the Butte County Personnel Rules. These positions will assist with Butte County Public Health's response to COVID-19 in our community.

Visit Butte County Human Resources to apply

www.buttecounty.net/humanresources

To learn more about Butte County Public Health:
www.buttecounty.net/publichealth